Examples of Medicaid Fraud:

- Billing for program services that were not actually provided.
- Providing unnecessary services in order to bill them.
- Billing for more expensive services.
- Billing for services separately that should legitimately be one billing.
- Billing more than once for the same service (double billing).
- Giving or accepting something of value (cash, gifts, services) in return for medical services, i. e., kickbacks.
- Falsifying cost reports.

Or when someone: • Lies about their eligibility • Lies about their medical condition • Forges prescriptions • Loans their Medicaid card to others

Or when a health care provider falsely charges for:

- Missed appointments • Unnecessary medical tests • Telephoned services
